

I wanted to express my extreme disappointment in the programming that is broadcast during prime time. As a teacher and a soon-to-be parent, our children are being exposed to programming that they should never come into contact with. On a daily basis, it seems there is more flesh and language on general TV. RIDICULOUS !